

Nailsworth Quaker Meeting Role Description

Member of Nominations Committee

How many:	Usually between three and five.
What they do:	Seek to understand the nature of the roles that on-going work with Local and Area Meeting involves and the qualities needed to fulfil them. Seek to understand what each role involves in terms of time and other costs. Discern the names of Friends and attenders who have a commitment to the practices of Friends' usual business methods. Seek to understand the gifts and interests that Friends within meeting have. Take the names to MfWfB for agreement and appointment or referral to Area Meeting for agreement and appointment. Reflect on the needs of the meeting. Consider whether all roles are necessary and what changes that can be suggested to MfWfB. Send a representative to Area Meeting Nominations Committee
When they do it:	Monthly meetings in the 6 months leading up to the end of a triennium. Bi-monthly meetings throughout the other 2.5 years. Speaking with members and attenders who the committee would like to nominate for a particular role whenever needed. Representative at MfWfB when Friends names are being put forward for appointment or standing down. Representative at Area Meeting Nominations Committee
Why they do it:	To help Friends discern who to appoint to take on various tasks on behalf of the Local Meeting and Gloucestershire Area Meeting.
Resources:	Use of email; Course on Nominations at Woodbrooke.
Budget:	Expenses can be reclaimed from the Treasurer(s).
Liaison with:	Clerk, all committees and post holders.
Appointed by:	Nailsworth Quaker Meeting.

Expanded description see:

- Quaker Faith and Practice: 3.22 to 25.
- Gloucestershire Area Quaker Meeting: Area Meeting Nominations Committee Job Description. glosquakers.org