

Nailsworth Quaker Meeting Role Description

Woodbrooke Correspondent

How many:	One
What they do:	Act as a link between the Meeting and Woodbrookes (Quaker Study Centre)  Promote courses and conferences that relate to roles carried out by members of the meeting  Promote courses that are likely to be of interest to members of the meeting
When they do it:	When Friends are considering or are appointed to roles within local and area meeting  In response to requests from individual Friends  On receipt of mailings from Woodbrooke
Why they do it:	To encourage Friends to engage in courses and conferences that broaden and deepen understanding and participation in Quakers
Resources:	Electronic and hardcopy information from Woodbrooke
Budget:	Fees and travel for courses and conferences linked with roles in local meeting are covered by application through the LM Treasurer and for area meeting roles through the AM Treasurer  A contribution towards the costs of attending courses to support personal development and interest can be requested through Elders and / or Overseers
Liaison with:	Members and Attenders of Nailsworth Meeting
Appointed by:	Nailsworth Quaker Meeting
Expanded description:	See Quaker Faith and Practice 2.80; 8.10 and 23.80 www.woodbrooke.org.uk